The pedication.

In an eloquest and impressive address, Rev. Dr. Zealy dedicated this tribute of loving and gallant comrades, to the memory of a gallant young hero, who gave his heart's blood as a sucred libation upon his country's altar. There was a large attendance of the fair and the brave of our city, and, we doubt not, that the committee returned to New Orleans assured that Jackson (and all Mississipp) fully aympathise with Louisiana, and the cause in which their dead comrade gave up his young life. Everybody got plenty. We don't exect soon to see as nice a dinner as was at old Greenville yesterday. After dinner was over, Mr. Brown, the colored orator of Tensas parish, deat, made a fine and telling speech. -

How to Vanquish the Stomach's

Tormentor. If the Enemy of mankind was permitted to exert his diabolical ingenuity in the invention of a new disease, he could scarcely advise one more worthy of his genius than dyspepsia. The dyspeptic sufferer is tormented symptoms resembling those of almost every unknown malady, and is often most every unknown malady, and is often the septial of the septial in the septial worried into monomania by these conflicting and perplexing manifestations. A fa vorite though absurd hallucination of the victim of chronic indigestion is that he or she has heart disease. Dispepsia has often been pronounced incurable, but experience has shown that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

THE BUSINESS OF W. H. ALLEN & CO., STATE OF MISSISSIPPI | Scr. and B. T. & C. A. Lucon, Surviving partners, must be closed up this fall. Persons independent in the foregoing statement is true. will vanquish it, together with the consti-pation and billious derangement which usually accompany it. Diseases of the kid-neys or supposed rheumatic pains are also frequent concomitants of dyspepsia, but neys or supposed rheumatic palus are also frequent concomitants of dyspepsia, but they, too, succumb to the above named invaluable corrective.
